

Janell is retiring! and what's happening next?

Most of our KTS Clients would like to know that Janell Sutcliffe is retiring. Her last day at KTS is at the end of this year on the 20th of December 2019.

After Janell leaves - below is what's happening next at KTS.....

JANELL

Janell Sutcliffe has worked for KTS for a total of 25 years, firstly with the former owners of KTS and in the last 20 years for Tony Forlong who is the current owner of KTS.

Janell is retiring at the end of this year. She will be greatly missed at KTS, she has been a kingpin of the Company, she knows all the Clients, and has a depth of understanding both professionally and personally regarding them.

On a personal note, Janell is really going to miss all the Clients of KTS, she has developed relationships with most of them, and she has always valued those relationships.

We wish Janell well in retirement, good health and happiness.

JANE

Jane Harraway is replacing Janell at the front desk and is also moving into the role of Practice Manager.

She has already worked at KTS for nine years as an excellent Accountant, because she is an Accountant she will have a good understanding of all the Client's needs and the best ways of handling them.

This will be a new role for Jane so she will be feeling her way for a while.

Your first port of call at KTS will be Jane, she will either be able to answer all your queries or will direct you to the best Accountant on our Team that can help you.

As Practice Manager she will be responsible for the efficient management of the Company, If you wish to make an appointment with Tony, please go through Jane.

ANECIA

Anecia Nel has joined us at KTS, to take over a lot of Jane's Clients

She is an experienced BAS Accountant with thirty years' accounting experience in a wide range of small, medium and large businesses, Partnerships, Sole traders and Trusts. She also did contract work for KTS in 2013.

Anecia has been married to her husband Andre since 1985, and they have a daughter and a son. The family immigrated to New Zealand in 2005, became citizens in 2010, and have lived in Albany since 2006.

She loves sewing and making clothes for herself and her family. The other love that she has is quilting as this is very relaxing and provides lots of satisfaction when you finish a quilt. With her family she enjoys New Zealand winters and skiing at Mt Ruapehu. We are proud to have Anecia on our Team at KTS.
